A Message From Our Headmistress

Education, like today's world, is constantly being taken apart and put back together again. Each time it bounces back with unique and better methods to open new doors to receptive young people of all ages. Because this is so, education has long ceased to be merely a requirement but a responsibility. The Class of 1968 has accepted this challenge, and it is to them and to all other young adults we must look for guidance in the future — for they are the hope of our future. To each of them goes my congratulations for past and present accomplishments, and my sincere confidence in them as they leave Prospect Hill to contribute their share in keeping the world bouncing back—a little better every time.

Jean Hooper
Headmistress

Miss Dorothy Renz

Our Associate Headmistress

Miss Renz is always available for an impromptu student-administration conversation.

Miss Dorothy Renz, Associate Headmistress at Prospect Hill, is a great asset to the school. Miss Renz is constantly working to promote a pleasant and orderly academic environment. Through gentle encouragement, she has taught us the meaning of maturity.

When not involved with administrative business, our assistant headmistress may be found in a classroom, instructing geometry. Miss Renz truly has a unique understanding of today's youth and is indeed capable of guiding us to accomplishing our goals.

An Expression of Our Appreciation

The joy of graduating is always dimmed by the painful and poignant task of saying farewell. It is with deep feeling, therefore, that we dedicate our yearbook to a friend of many years.

She has balanced our studies, arduous as they sometimes were, with the beauty of songs. With gentle guidance she has taught us to achieve our immediate goals. Her contribution to Prospect Hill cannot be measured. By dedicating herself so fully to the teaching profession, by working endlessly, vigorously, and with constant devotion to the school and all of its students, she has indeed united us with harmony.

We, the graduating class, take pride and pleasure in dedicating the "Aster" to our Teacher of 1968 — Mrs. Dorothy Collins.

Mrs. Collins in her element.

The Student Council of Prospect Hill has the large responsibility of establishing rules and regulations to maintain an orderly and stimulating environment. The girls plan various school functions during the year. The most important of these is the annual school fair, a fund raising project which was a great success this year. The council was enlarged by extending membership to all class presidents. Representatives of each class compose the organization.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is an organization which promotes academic studies and encourages leadership. The Prospect Hill Chapter of this group was formed many years ago to help stimulate scholarship achievement and school spirit. Membership is based on academic progress and extracurricular activities. At the annual school fair, the girls of this worthy organization sold School supplies at the P.H.S. table.

The Glee Club of Prospect Hill under the supervision of Mrs. Collins merits admiration. Through participation in this group, students gain a feeling of fulfillment. The Glee Club tries to share its love for music with others, by presenting various concerts throughout the year. This year, the girls sang at The Memorial Home. They also held concerts with the Hun School Glee Club, conducted by Mr. Charles Higgins. During the spring, the Glee Club presented an operetta, working together with the Drama Club. This year's officers were: Ruth Reilly, President; Peggy Jane Forman, Secretary.

. . . Chord

"Sing Around the Piano"

The Chord is a small, select group of girls chosen from the Glee Club, who show true promise in the field of singing. They have weekly meetings "around the piano," to cultivate their vocal skills. At many Glee Club concerts, the chord sings solos, and enriches the effect of the music.

Parlez-Vous Francais?

Once a week, the French students of Prospect Hill visit France. Perhaps the trip is an imaginary one; however, the French room, decorated with posters of Paris, creates a French atmosphere. The mademoiselles participate in discussions concerning the cultural aspects of France such as art and music, and play American games in a French style. The club was certainly trés bien this year.

El Circulo Espanol

"El Circulo Espanol," or for the foreigners, "The Spanish Club," was a great success this year. Regular meetings were held, in which Spanish plays were acted out, and Spanish games were played. The girls had the privilege of visiting a museum in New York. La Senora Bloom was the faculty sponsor for the group.

Drama Club

On Stage Everyone

The Drama Club, under the direction of Miss McDermott, was quite successful this year. The girls added a touch of comedy to the annual school fair, by performing a western comedy entitled "A Deputy for Broken Bow."

At Christmas time, they presented a reading of "A Christmas Memory," by Truman Capote. During the spring, the Drama Club worked in cooperation with the Glee Club, to present an operetta. The girls indeed deserve an encore!

The enactment of a tragic scene allows the members to experience the more serious aspect of the theatre.

Several members quietly wait as they receive instructions.

Sewing Club

Prospect Hill is fortunate in having a sewing expert on its faculty. Miss Suranyi, the school's science teacher, can create anything from fluffy woolen slippers to dresses and suits. The sewing club, which was sponsored by Miss Suranyi, met weekly this year, and learned the arts of knitting, crocheting and sewing.

Fashion Design

This year, at Prospect Hill, an exciting new club was formed. "The Fashion Designers," under the leadership of Miss Porcelli, the schools' art teacher, advanced toward rewarding endeavors. At weekly sessions, the girls learned that designing clothes can be fun and practical. "Paper dresses," a new look in mod fashion were created by the members. The girls made sketches of gowns for that special day in their futures. At each meeting new original designs were styled. Many of the future fashion designers of America indeed may be among these eager young members of Prospect Hill's new group.

Science Club

The Science Club of Prospect Hill, under the direction of Miss Suranyi, meets weekly to perform experiments and discuss scientific observations. The girls watch the growth of plants and are amazed to learn about phenomenon which they never knew existed. Each meeting proves interesting and beneficial to the "future scientists" of Prospect Hill.

In Action . . .

Physical

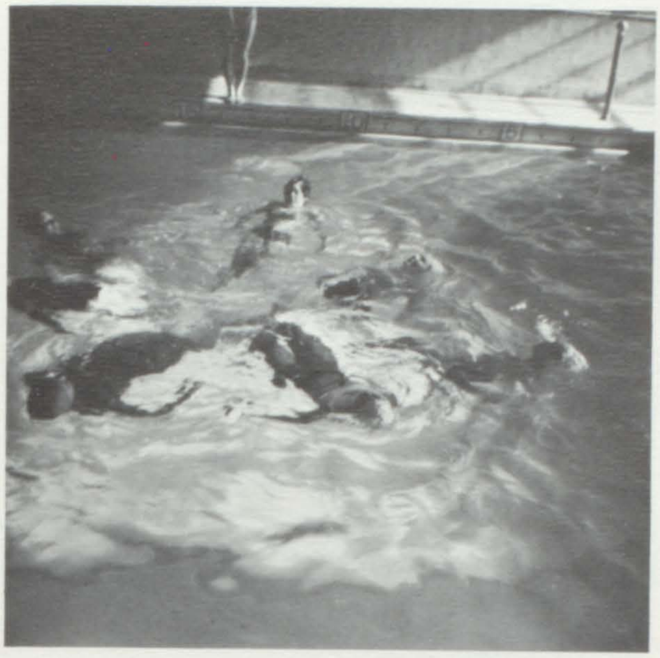

The Physical Education program for the girls of Prospect Hill is invigorating and enjoyable. Gym classes are held at the Y.W.C.A. in Orange. Swimming under the supervision of Mrs. Richards and gym classes directed by Mrs. Schwartz, are coordinated to make each weekly session a profitable one. Activities such as synchronized swimming, volley-ball, basketball, softball, and tumbling proved worthwhile for the students.

Senior Seat

Prospect Hill is proud of its many traditions which have endured throughout the years. One of these is the "senior seat privilege." Seniors and alumnae only, may sit on this semi-circular windowseat. To a student at Prospect Hill, the seat symbolizes an achievement: it marks the completion of three years of study and the beginning of her last happy year at Prospect Hill.

In the picture, the class of 1968 kneel down as they present this seat to the upcoming senior class of 1969.

Last Will and Testament

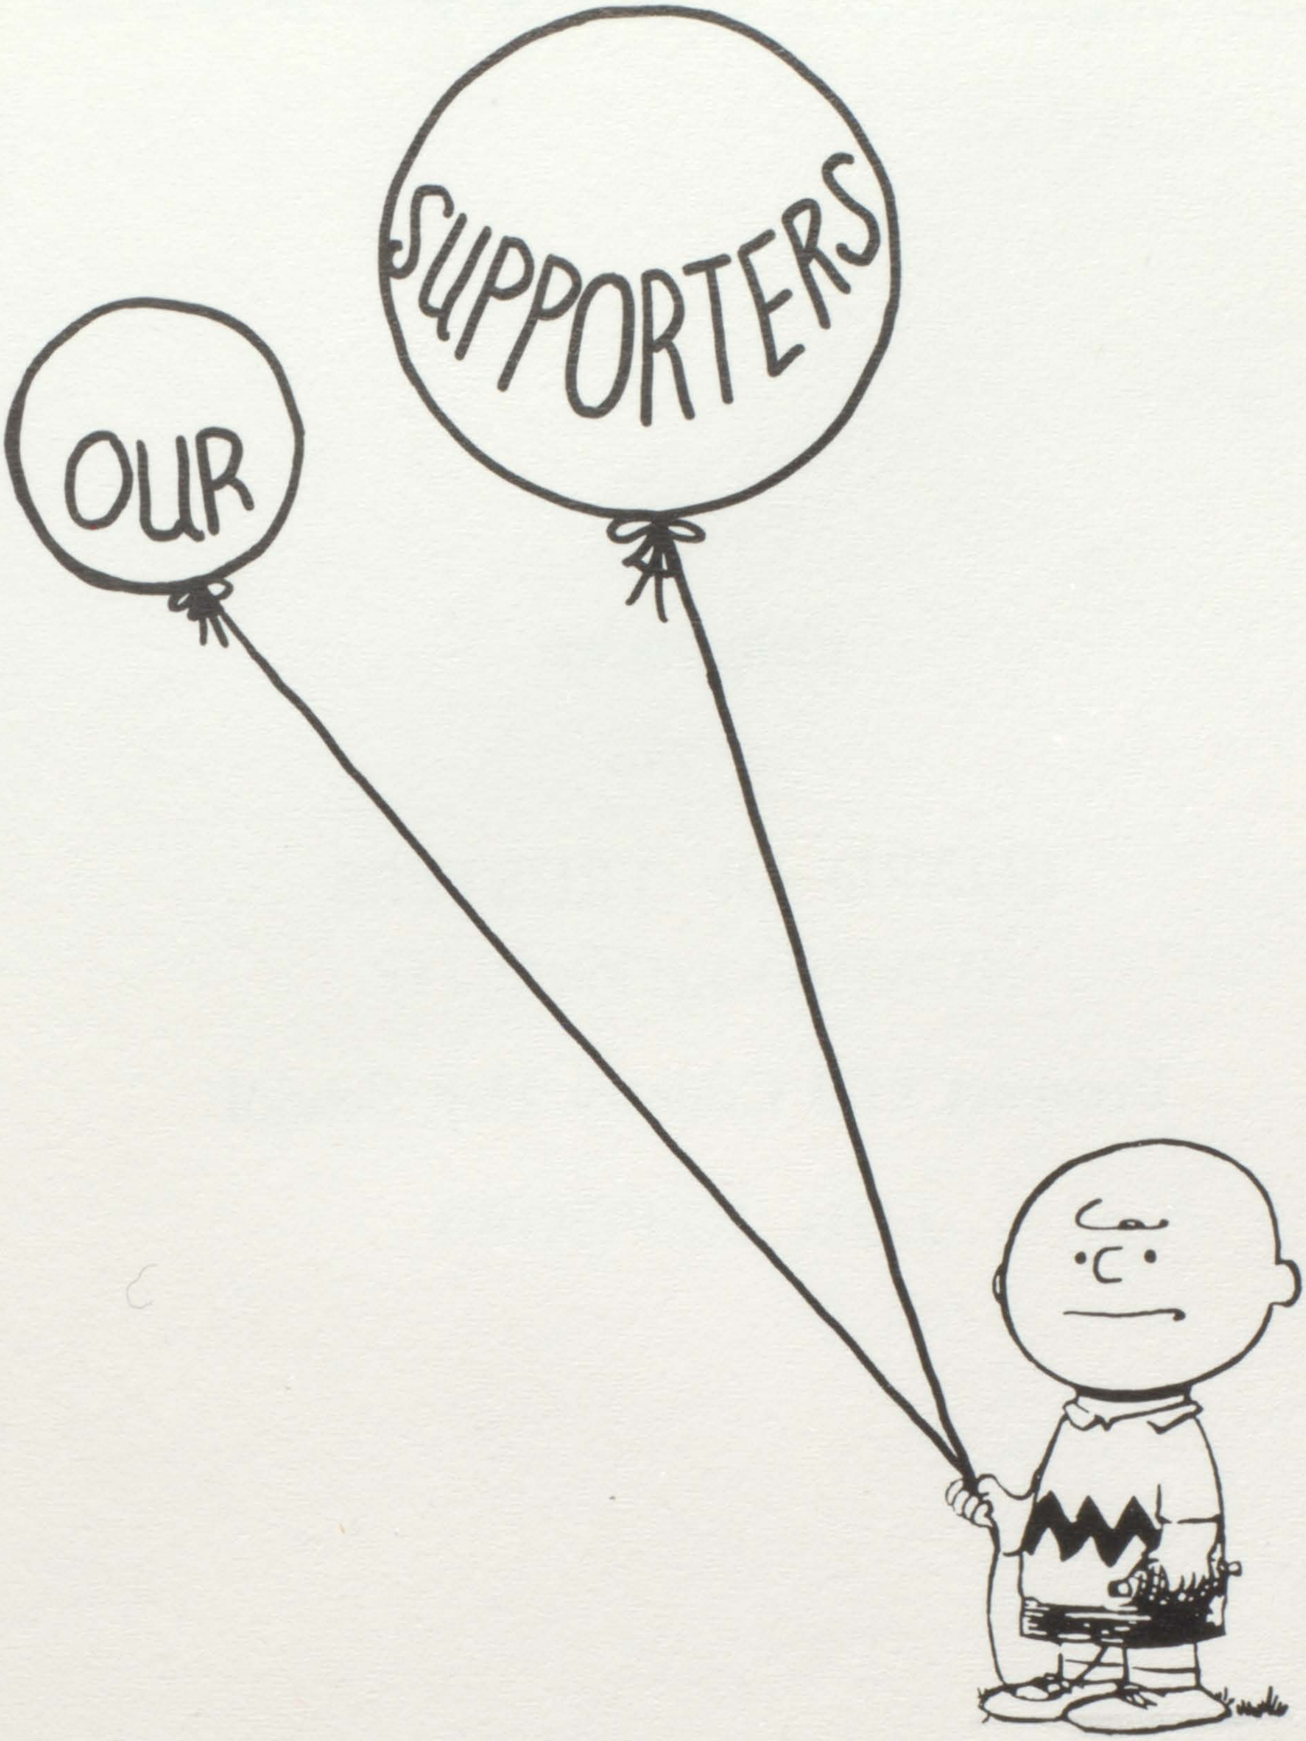

We, the class of June 1968, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby bequeath the following:

7th Grade—We leave (now mature enough to attend) school assemblies
8th Grade—Four more happy years at Prospect Hill???
9th Grade—A course in French
10th Grade—"Love and Loyalty Uplifted"
11th Grade—A daffodil
Mrs. Alt—A Senior blazer
Mrs. Bloom—a permanent part in "Rock & Roll Hamlet"
Mrs. Chamblin—A round trip ticket to the University of Paris.
Miss Cameron—A solid gold "Ladybug"
Mrs. Charney—Her own Metropolitan Opera House.
Miss Fucetola—The ceilings of Prospect Hill to re-create
Mrs. Grasso—Spic & Span, a mop and her own cleaning committee
Mrs. Hooper—A HEALTHY NEW YEAR!
Miss McDermott—Walking through woods of symbols, dark and dense.
Mrs. Newton—"The Law of Gravity"
Miss Renz—A gift certificate from Vera Plum
Mrs. Roth—Her own private "lost and found"
Mrs. Simpson—Two cartons of Winston and a note granting her permission to smoke
Miss Suranyi—Hungarian Road signs
Mrs. Topoleski—"That gentle little blue pill . . . COMPOZ"
Mrs. Weber—An extension phone in the "john"
Gene—An electric snow shovel
Bessie—Her very own nursery school
Mrs. Pidcock—A charge account at the Shop-Rite
Mrs. Collins—OUR LOVE.

With love from the class of 1968 . . .

I wanted to write some words you'd remember words so alert they'd leap from the paper and crawl up your shoulder and lie by your ears
and be there to comfort you down through the years.
But it was cloudy that day and I was lazy
and so I stayed in bed just thinking about it.
